N A R R A T I V E	On 04-26-2020 at approximately 1834 hours I, Officer J. Brooks #33066 and other assisting officers with the City of Orlando Police Department, responded to 512 East Washington Street Lake Eola Park in reference to a disturbance. Upon my arrival Officer R. Carlisle #31547 had already made contact with all parties involved and identified the suspect as Gayle Wessel. I made contact with City of Orlando Park Ranger employee Kurt Denmon who advised he was flagged down by an unknown passersby of the park advised a white female (Wessel) was breaking bird eggs that were in a nest within the park. I observed approximately 16 eggs broken that were approximately 8 feet to the southwest of the nest. An independent witness, later identified as Steven Strickland who advised at approximately 1700 hours he observed the nest and all 16 eggs were intact and not disturbed. Strickland provided a sworn written statement. Wessel was read Miranda Warning from a pre-printed card by Officer Carlisle. Wessel advised she broke a few eggs because she thought they were rotten and saw other ducks eating the eggs. Wessel advised she broke approximately 3-5 eggs. City of Orlando Volunteer James "Jimmy" Johnson arrived on scene. Johnson identified the nest as belonging to a Grey Lag Goose and advised that none of the eggs were rotten. Johnson advised he assist with the care of the animals within Lake Eola Park and advised the eggs were approximately 2 weeks away from hatching. Johnson advised none of the eggs were broken when he inspected the nest on 04-25-2020. Johnson advised he spoke to a representative of the park and advised the City of Orlando owns the Grey Lag Goose and the eggs were worth approximately $200.00 a piece (total of approximately $3200.00) Johnson advised on behalf of the City of Orlando he wished to press charges. Johnson provided a sworn written statement. I believe probable cause does exist to charge Gayle Wessel with 1 count of Criminal Mischief &gt;$1000 due to the fact 16 eggs were destroyed and Wessel admitted to removing eggs from the nest and breaking them. Wessel was transported to BRC without further incident my City of Orlando Police Department
